

I can do that, but the information provided is simply a title and subtitle. I need more context to create relevant MCQs.

To generate effective questions, please provide me with:

* More details about "The Well-Watered Woman": What are the main themes? What topics are covered in the book?

* The target audience: Who is this workbook for? This will help me tailor the difficulty and subject matter of the questions.

* Examples of the types of questions you're looking for: Are you looking for questions that test knowledge, application, or analysis?

Once I have this information, I can create 8 high-quality MCQs for you.
